Alteration of the old jail for accommodation of the insane, &c. The act of August 29, 1842, provides that the Commissioner of Public Buildings be authorized and required, under the direction of the President of the United States, and upon a plan to be by him approved, to cause such alterations to be made in the old jail as will adapt it for the reception and accommodation of the insane of the District of Columbia, and of such sick, disabled, and infirm seamen, soldiers, and others as may, by competent authority, to be hereafter prescribed, be deemed proper to be received therein; which building, with one-half of the ground occupied by the old and new jails, is hereby assigned for those purposes. That on the completion of the said building, the President be authorized to appoint three respectable persons, residents of the city of Washington, to be a board of inspectors of the said institution, who shall hold their offices two years from the date of their appointment, and whose duty it shall be to have a general supervision of the concerns of the said hospital, to appoint the necessary subordinate officers thereof, to prescribe rules for the admission and due regulation of patients therein, and to make an annual report to Congress of their proceedings and of the condition of the said institution. That there be appropriated $10,000 for the alteration of the said building and improvement of the grounds, to be paid out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated. To enable the Secretary of the Interior to pay the expenditures made by the board of public works of the District of Columbia for paving roadways, and curbing and paving sidewalks, grading, sewerage, and other improvements upon and adjoining the property of the United States in the District of Columbia: Provided, That all payments under this appropriation shall be made only upon vouchers approved by the officer in charge of the public buildings and grounds of the District, after full examination and measurement of the said improvements, and the approval of the prices claimed therefor: And provided further, That the said board of public works be, and they are hereby, prohibited from incurring or contracting further liabilities on behalf of the United States in the improvement of streets, avenues, and reservations beyond the amount of appropriations previously made by Congress, and from entering into any contract touching such improvements on behalf of the United States except in pursuance of appropriations made by Congress

To complete improvements of streets and avenues now in progress opposite and around government property.....
For the District of Columbia, to be expended by the Commissioners of said District and applied as follows: First, to the payment of interest on the funded debt of said District due July 1, 1874; secondly, to the payment of officers, employees, and laborers of the District, whether of the District proper or of the board of public works; thirdly, for the payment of any indebtedness for which the securities of the District are pledged, and the remainder to the current expenses of said District. The money herein appropriated shall be drawn from the Treasury from time to time, as the same may be needed, and only upon detailed statements of amounts to be paid and the persons to whom, or on what account payable, to which statements shall be appended the certificates of such Commissioners that they have carefully examined such accounts, and that they believe them to be just and due to the respective claimants thereof; copies of said statements, together with a report of all receipts and disbursements of said District government, shall be transmitted by them to the President, to be by him transmitted to Congress at the beginning of its next session: Provided, That all sums due any party exceeding $100, shall be paid only by checks on the Treasury, issued directly to the party to whom the same is due: And provided further, That the sum of $75,000 of said sum hereby appropriated shall be used for the payment of the workingmen employed on public improvements on the streets and excavations of Washington under the board of public works of the District of Columbia, or the contractors of the same; and the Commissioners are hereby authorized and ordered to retain from the several contractors who are indebted to the workingmen, and whose accounts have not been settled by the board of public works, the several sums due the workingmen; all the above sums, except so much thereof as may be paid for interest as aforesaid, to be considered and adjusted hereafter as a part of the proper proportional sum to be paid by the United States toward the expenses of the government of the District of Columbia.....
To pay on behalf of the United States as a portion of the general expenses of the District of Columbia to be expended by the Commissioners of said District, only to be drawn as needed for immediate use, and $500,000 of this sum shall be available from the passage of this act, no salaries to be changed from the standard fixed under act of June 20, 1874.....
To pay a portion of the general expenses of the District of Columbia, to be expended by the Commissioners of said District.....
